

Dear Colleagues,

As we enter the final week of planning to welcome the UEFA Champions League Final to Cardiff, as part of the Visitor Experience agenda, the FAW are sourcing some tee shirts that will carry finalist team details on them, and as such will be offering these shirts for customer facing staff in bars, restaurants and clubs to wear on match day for free.

If interested, and wish to receive a maximum of 4 shirts per establishment, to be worn on the Saturday 3rd June whilst serving in your establishments, please respond to Alys Pride.
apride@faw.co.uk.

The following detail is required:-

- Company name
- Company address
- Contact Name
- Email and telephone number of contact
- Sizes required – please note sizes will be universal unisex small, medium, large, Extra large
- Maximum qty available per business is 4 tee shirts

These tee-shirts will be available on a first come first served basis.

The tee-shirts will be delivered to your establishment from Thursday 1st June 2017.

Please respond to Alys with the above detail no later than Tuesday 30th May Alys Pride -
apride@faw.co.uk

There will be an official photographer capturing the atmosphere and event progress in various locations throughout, and these images may then be used in a memory book to celebrate Cardiff and the event post final.

Thank you
Gyda diolch
